Police offer reward in burglaries, gang action suspected

Hoopeston police are offering a reward for information leading to the conviction of a criminal.

The department will pay a minimum of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or people who burglarized the Hoopeston Coin Laundry and Silver Brothers Construction, said Chief Carl Valentine.

The laundromat burglary was reported Nov. 16, while Silver Brothers was burglarized the night of Nov. 21.

A third burglary, reported this week at the Hoopeston V.F.W., does not appear to be related to the other two, Valentine said.

Valentine plans to meet with local business owners to discuss starting a Crimestoppers program.

He will ask businesses to donate money to the program, offering rewards for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for local crimes. "When you start offering money, I think you'll see a lot of these burglaries solved," he said.

Additionally, the department now has three investigators - one on each shift - to solve such crimes, he said.

The recent burglaries are related and may be gang-related, Valentine said.

Substantial amounts of money were taken in the two burglaries and gang symbols were found at each scene.

If gangs are involved, whether they are from Hoopeston is unknown. "I've heard there's a feud between Hoopeston and Watseka gangs," Valentine said.

Also, the appearance of gang symbols does not mean major gangs have come to Hoopeston. "We're not talking about gangs who are going to shoot people," he said. "We're talking about play-time gangs. I don't think it's anything to be super concerned about."

Police believe recent burglaries are linked not only to
